

Sustainability & Energy Webinar

Metering by Design -CEU Quiz

1. The components of an advanced Federal utility metering system is defined by Hardware, Software, Communication Equipment

TRUE

FALSE

2. All logged data from "open protocol" utility meters can be integrated into any enterprise metering system

TRUE

FALSE

3. The difference between an electrical energy meter and an electrical power quality meter is explained by Energy meters measure energy consumption, whereas power quality meters measure both energy consumption and power quality parameters

TRUE

FALSE

4. Which of the following does Metering System Components not consist of ?

Meters

Inspections

Data Storage

Information Presentation